ABOUT ME

My name is Amin Ibrahim and I am a young, ambitious and determined person that is currently searching for a job. Despite my young age I have already experience working as a kitchen assistant. I am looking for an opportunity that will help me evolve and acquire new skills. I am very responsible, punctual and full of energy and therefore I believe that I would perform successfully in any position. I am very open and therefore I enjoy working in groups with other people. I am searching for a full-time or part-time job. I have all my documents in place and I can legally work in Greece.
