ABOUT ME..

If I could describe myself, I would say that I am an honest, hardworking, perfectionist and eager to learn man. I believe that hard work is necessary to achieve the goals and I am willing, with a lot of mood and energy, to follow this path. One of my career priorities is to be part of a dynamic team to expand my knowledge in both technology and software development. Also, I think as a man, I have the courage to work in stressful environments and the ability to cope with difficult situations.
